804 SYCAMORE OWNER

804 Sycamore is a home décor, E-design, and DIY blog written by Amy Wadsworth. In July 2019, Amy established 804 Sycamore and has been steadily growing the blog and social platforms ever since. Amy is passionate about inspiring and encouraging others through interior decorating, design, home DIY, and more! Since May 2020, Amy is now able to focus her full-time attention to the blog and tackle some exciting DIY projects on her builder-grade home. 804 Sycamore is all about sharing home décor sources and ideas, creating home décor, and inspiring others with home DIY projects and E-design. Amy's goal is to inspire others to create a home they love living in.
